AT MY COMMAND had to overcome a wide draw when second in the Grade 2 Post Merchants last time. The manner in which he finished off his race that day was encouraging. He ran on powerfully when 0.1 lengths behind LUCKY LAD in his penultimate run. He has found good form in recent outings and if not too far out of his ground turning for home, he should be the one to beat. LUCKY LAD just won his last start over 1100m at Turffontein. He is unbeaten from two starts over this distance and both those victories were in Grade 1 races. He is drawn widest of all, but gets the services of Richard Fourie who will give him all the necessary assistance from the saddle. SURJAY produced a typical second run after a rest last time. He finished second in this race last year. Luyolo Mxothwa steps back into the saddle and from his good draw of two, he should find a form return. GLADATORIAN was not disgraced when sixth in the Grade 1 Hollywoodbets Gold Challenge last time. He has won twice and finished second once from four starts over this C&D. The son of Vercingetorix would not be a shock winner.
